In the case of the purchase of new furniture, Centrufficio carries out an inspection at the customer\u2019s premises to view the existing furniture and assess the feasibility of collection.\n\n2. Following this inspection, an agreement is reached with the client on the date and method of collecting the furniture, which very often coincides with the delivery of the new furniture.\n\n3. The disposal of the furniture includes collection (also on the floor), dismantling, disassembly of components and disposal of the various materials in accordance with the law.\n\n4. We can also carry out removals of pre-existing furniture, providing for its disassembly, floor collection, packing, return and reassembly.\n\n\u301038\u2020Contact us\u3011 to evaluate the purchase of new furniture with disposal service.\n\n\u00a9 Copyright 2024 Centrufficio S.p.A. - Sede societaria Viale Andrea Doria 17 - 20124 Milano (MI) Italia - P.  the case of projects involving the purchase of new furniture, offers the customer a take-back service for existing furniture.\n\nWhen dealing with a move or a change in the layout of one\u2019s office space with the renewal of furniture, one of the most important operations to be carried out concerns the management and disposal of used furniture, since very often these are materials that must be carefully disassembled and separated into their wooden, metal and plastic components.\n\nHow the \u2018buy with take-back\u2019 formula works:\n\n1. In the case of the purchase of new furniture, Centrufficio carries out an inspection at the customer\u2019s premises to view the existing furniture and assess the feasibility of collection.\n\n2. Following this inspection, an agreement is reached with the client on the date and method of collecting the furniture, which very often coincides with the delivery of the new furniture.\n\n3. The disposal of the furniture includes collection (also on the floor), dismantling, disassembly of components and disposal of the various materials in accordance with the law.\n\n4. We can also carry out removals of pre-existing furniture, providing for its disassembly, floor collection, packing, return and reassembly.\n\n\u301038\u2020Contact us\u3011 to evaluate the purchase of new furniture with disposal service.\n\n\u00a9 Copyright 2024 Centrufficio S.p.A. - Sede

Frequently asked questions\n\nCan you recycle a couch?\n\nYes! Couches can be broken down for recycling at your local recycling facility. Couches often contain metal springs, wood, cotton fabric and foam core that is easily recycled, but you\u2019ll have to deal with hauling it there, wait times and fees.\n\nIf you don\u2019t have the time or vehicle to deal with it yourself, the most convenient way to recycle a couch is to \u301011\u2020book LoadUp online\u3011 to haul it away and try to find the greenest disposal method for your old couch and any other unwanted junk you need to get rid of.\n\nHow do you get rid of old couches?\n\nThe easiest way to get rid of old couches is to have them removed and hauled away for proper disposal by \u301012\u2020scheduling a pickup\u3011 with a junk removal company like LoadUp that specialize in haul away services for couches and other types of furniture.\n\nHow much does sofa disposal cost?\n\nThe best way to find cheap couch removal without skimping on the quality of service is to go with a licensed and insured junk removal company like LoadUp. Our average price for sofa disposal starts at $80. We don't require on-site estimates, so the amount you're quoted is the amount you'll pay. No hidden fees or surprise charges, ever.

Can I leave my old couch at the curb?

When you schedule convenient curbside couch pickup services with us, we'll come to get it from right in front of your home or office. If you haven't scheduled a furniture removal service with us, you shouldn't leave your couch at the curb. Couches are bulky items that require a special bulk pickup with your local waste management company, who will take it to a landfill.

Can I leave my couch by the dumpster?

Although you can technically throw a couch in a dumpster, you shouldn't. Throwing items in a dumpster without permission can get you in trouble with the dumpster owner, and even the law. Check your state's illegal dumping laws for more information about fines and other penalties.

An easier way to get rid of an unwanted couch is to have it removed by a professional junk removal service. At LoadUp, we'll haul away your old couch, sectional sofa, recliner or any other furniture you need removed from anywhere in your home. Don't risk getting in trouble for illegal dumping when you can just LoadUp, dude!

Frequently asked questions

Can you recycle a couch?

Yes! Couches can be broken down for recycling at your local recycling facility. Couches often contain metal springs, wood, cotton fabric and foam core that is easily recycled, but you'll have to deal with hauling it there, wait times and fees.

If you don't have the time or vehicle to deal with it yourself, the most convenient way to recycle a couch is to book LoadUp online to haul it away and try to find the greenest disposal method for your old couch and any other unwanted junk you need to get rid of.

How do you get rid of old couches?

The easiest way to get rid of old couches is to have them removed and hauled away for proper disposal by scheduling a pickup with a junk removal company like LoadUp that specialize in haul away services for couches and other types of furniture.

How much does sofa disposal cost?

The best way to find cheap couch removal without skimping on the quality of service is to go with a licensed and insured junk removal company like LoadUp. Our average price for sofa disposal starts at $80. We don't require on-site estimates, so the amount you're quoted is the amount you'll pay. No hidden fees or surprise charges, ever.

Can I leave my old couch at the curb?

When you schedule convenient curbside couch pickup services with us, we'll come to get it from right in front of your home or office. If you haven't scheduled a furniture removal service with us, you shouldn't leave your couch at the curb. Couches are bulky items that require a special bulk pickup with your local waste management company, who will take it to a landfill.

Can I leave my couch by the dumpster?

Although you can technically throw a couch in a dumpster, you shouldn't. Throwing items in a dumpster without permission can get you in trouble with the dumpster owner, and even the law. Check your state's illegal dumping laws for more information about fines and other penalties.

An easier way to get rid of an unwanted couch is to have it removed by a professional junk removal service. At LoadUp, we'll haul away your old couch, sectional sofa, recliner or any other furniture you need removed from anywhere in your home. Don't risk getting in trouble for illegal dumping when you the case of projects involving the purchase of new furniture, offers the customer a take-back service for existing furniture.\n\nWhen dealing with a move or a change in the layout of one\u2019s office space with the renewal of furniture, one of the most important operations to be carried out concerns the management and disposal of used furniture, since very often these are materials that must be carefully disassembled

 and separated into their wooden, metal and plastic components.\n\nHow the \u2018buy
 with take-back\u2019 formula works:\n\n1. In the case of the purchase of new furniture, Centrufficio carries out an inspection at the customer\u2019s premises to view the existing furniture and assess the feasibility of collection.\n\n2. Following this inspection, an agreement is reached with the client on the date and method of collecting the furniture, which very often coincides with the delivery of the new furniture.\n\n3. The disposal of the furniture includes collection (also on the floor), dismantling, disassembly of components and disposal of the various materials in
 furniture, providing for its disassembly, floor collection, packing, return and reassembly.\n\n\u301038\u2020Contact us\u3011 to evaluate the purchase of new furniture with disposal service.\n\n\u00a9 Copyright 2024 Centrufficio S.p.A. - Sede

Couches can be broken down for recycling at your local recycling facility. Couches often contain metal springs, wood, cotton fabric and foam core that is easily recycled, but you'll have to deal with hauling it there, wait times and fees. If you don't have the time or vehicle to deal with it yourself, the most convenient way to recycle a couch is to book LoadUp online to haul it away and try to find the greenest disposal method for your old couch and any other unwanted junk you need to get rid of. How do you get rid of old couches? The easiest way to get rid of old couches is to have them removed and hauled away for proper disposal by scheduling a pickup with a junk removal company like LoadUp that specialize in haul away services for couches and other types of furniture. How much does sofa disposal cost? The best way to find cheap couch removal without skimping on the quality of service is to go with a licensed and insured junk removal company like LoadUp. Our average price for sofa disposal starts at $80. We don't require on-site estimates, so the amount you're quoted is the amount you'll pay. No hidden fees or surprise charges, ever. Can I leave my old couch at the curb? When you schedule convenient curbside couch pickup services with us, we'll come to get it from right in front of your home or office. If you haven't scheduled a furniture removal service with us, you shouldn't leave your couch at the curb. Couches are bulky items that require a special bulk pickup with your local waste management company, who will take it to a landfill. Can I leave my couch by the dumpster? Although you can technically throw a couch in a dumpster, you shouldn't. Throwing items in a dumpster without permission can get you in trouble with the dumpster owner, and even the law. Check your state's illegal dumping laws for more information about fines and other penalties. An easier way to get rid of an unwanted couch is to have it removed by a professional junk removal service. At LoadUp, we'll haul away your old couch, sectional sofa, recliner or any other furniture you need removed from anywhere in your home. Don't risk getting in trouble for illegal dumping when you can just LoadUp, dude! Professional couch hauling with upfront pricing at your fingertips. If you have a used sectional or sleeper sofa that you don't need, you can get the old, unwanted couch hauled away the next-day! Whether your couch is saggy and gross or ready for a new love, LoadUp will help haul away your old couch at your convenience! [Image 16: In-Home Couch Removal] Luxury in-home pickup.  \u301077\u2020Wanted in Rome\u3011 \n\nDate:\n\n05 Nov, 2019\n\n#### Large domestic items can be dropped to collection centres on 10 November.\n\nThe capital's refuse agency AMA Roma will accept bulky household waste, such as old furniture, mattresses, televisions and washing machines, from the city's even-numbered boroughs, or municipi, on Sunday 10 November.\n\nThe free service, known as "Il tuo quartiere non \u00e8 una discarica" (Your neighbourhood is not a dump) will be available from 08.00 until 13.00.\n\nAMA has set up 26 collection points around the city – seven permanent collection centres and 19 set up especially for the initiative.\n\nFor full details, including your nearest collection point, see \u3011 \n\n# Free collection for bulky waste \n\nBy: \u301079\u2020Wanted in Rome\u3011 \n\nDate:\u3011 \n\n27 Mar, 2013\u3011 \n\nFrom 2 April the capital's refuse company AMA Roma will provide a free home collection service for bulky household rubbish, such as sofas, beds, televisions sets and washing machines, which will be taken away for recycling and correct disposal.\n\nThere is no cost for the service which is only for domestic use and is aimed at tackling the problem of illegal dumping. The new home collection service will replace the 186 mobile collection points around the city, which will be phased out by 30 April.

The service permits householders to throw out up to two cubic metres of volume which is the equivalent of a three-seater couch; a table plus large-screen television; or a washing machine and dishwasher. The service can be used up to a maximum of 12 times a year and no more than twice a month.

In addition to the bulky household waste, AMA will also collect electronic appliances such as washing machines, refrigerators, freezers, dishwashers, computers, monitors, printers, televisions, music systems, fans and hair dryers.

However the service does not include toxic or hazardous waste such as used batteries, expired medicines, neon lighting tubes, solvents or material containing asbestos. Neither does it include objects that are burnt, wet or mouldy.

In cases where the amount of rubbish to be thrown out adds up to more than two cubic metres, or is non-domestic waste, AMA Roma continues its collection system of before, for a fee.

The new service works by making an appointment by calling 060606 Mon-Fri from 09.00-18.00 and Sat 09.00-16.00, alternatively by filling out the online form on the AMA website. When booking, just insert your individual user code (found on the top right of your AMA bills).

Once an appointment is made, the objects being thrown out must be taken to the street level for collection. The AMA workers will have an identity badge and will provide you with a receipt outlining the type of material collected.

 Rome\u3011\n\nDate:\n\n27 Mar, 2013\n\nFrom 2 April the capital's refuse company AMA Roma will provide a free home collection service for bulky household rubbish, such as sofas, beds, televisions sets and washing machines, which will be taken away for recycling and correct disposal.\n\nThere is no cost for the service which is only for domestic use and is aimed at tackling the problem of illegal dumping. The new home collection service will replace the 186 mobile collection points around the city, which will be phased out by 30 April.\n\nThe service permits householders to throw out up to two cubic metres of volume which is the equivalent of a three-seater couch; a table plus large-screen television; or a washing machine and dishwasher. The service can be used up to a maximum of 12 times a year and no more than twice a month.\n\nIn addition to the bulky household waste, AMA will also collect electronic appliances such as washing machines, refrigerators, freezers, dishwashers, computers, monitors, printers, televisions, music systems, fans and hair dryers.\n\nHowever the service does not include toxic or hazardous waste such as used batteries, expired medicines, neon lighting tubes, solvents or material containing asbestos. Neither does it include objects that are burnt, wet or mouldy.\n\nIn cases where the amount of rubbish to be thrown out adds up to more than two cubic metres, or is non-domestic waste, AMA Roma continues its collection system of before, for a fee.\n\nThe new service works by making an appointment by calling 060606 Mon-Fri from 09.00-18.00 and Sat 09.00-16.00, alternatively by filling out the online form on the \u301082\u2020AMA website\u2020www.amaroma.it\u3011. When booking, just insert your individual user code (found on the top right of your AMA bills).\n\nOnce an appointment is made, the objects being thrown out must be taken to the street level for collection. The AMA workers will have an identity badge and will provide you with a receipt outlining the type of material collected.\n\nSHARE\n\n\u301083\u2020 Facebook bulky waste collection service in Rome \n\nBy: \u301077\u2020Wanted in Rome\u3011 \n\nDate:\n\n01 Dec, 2016\n\nAMA Roma reinstates collection of large domestic items.\n\nThe capital's refuse agency AMA Roma has reinstated its collection of bulky household waste, which had been suspended since 18 June due to a non-renewal of the contract.\n\nThe service, which is active from 1 December, includes the collection of items such as old sofas, beds, televisions sets and washing machines.\n\nThe service is free for those living on street level, as well as from courtyards, front doors or accessible garages, with a maximum of two cubic metres of volume. This is the equivalent of a three seater couch; a table plus large screen television; or a washing machine and dishwasher.

For those without street access there is a collection fee: \u20ac18.34 for up to one cubic metre of waste, or \u20ac29.34 for up to two cubic metres. The service \u2013 for street level and upper level \u2013 can be used up to a maximum of 12 times a year and no more than twice a month.

To book an appointment tel. 060606 Mon-Fri from 09.00-18.00 and Sat 09.00-16.00, alternatively compile the online form on the \u00a0AMA website\u00a0www.amaroma.it\u00a0. When booking, insert your individual user code (found on the top right of your AMA bills).

The reactivation of the service follows the recent \u201cFrigogate\u201d; \u00a0comments by Rome mayor Virginia Raggi who voiced suspicions over an allegedly large amount of refrigerators abandoned on streets around the capital.

\31078\2020 Return of bulky waste collection service in Rome \311 \n\n\31015\2020 News \311 \31079\2020 Environment \311 \n\n# Return of bulky waste collection service in Rome \n\nBy: \31077\2020Wanted in Rome\311 \n\nDate:\n\n01 Dec, 2016\n\nAMA Roma reinstates collection of large domestic items.\n\nThe capital's refuse agency AMA Roma has reinstated its collection of bulky household waste, which had been suspended since 18 June due to a non-renewal of the contract.\n\nThe service, which is active from 1 December, includes the collection of items such as old sofas, beds, televisions sets and washing machines.\n\nThe
service is free for those living on street level, as well as from courtyards, front doors or accessible garages, with a maximum of two cubic metres of volume. This is the equivalent of a three-seater couch; a table plus large-screen television; or a washing machine and dishwasher.\n\nFor those without street access there is a collection fee: \20ac18.34 for up to one cubic metre of waste, or \20ac29.34 for up to two cubic metres. The service \2013 for street level and upper level \2013 can be used up to a maximum of 12 times a year and no more than twice a month.\n\nTo book an appointment tel. 060606 Mon-Fri from 09.00-18.00 and Sat 09.00-16.00, alternatively compile the online form on the \31080\2020AMA website\2020www.amaroma.it\311. When booking, insert your individual user code (found on the top right of your AMA bills).\n\nThe reactivation of the service follows the recent \31081\2020"Frigogate" \311comments by Rome mayor Virginia Raggi who voiced suspicions over an allegedly large amount of refrigerators abandoned on streets around the capital.\n\nSHARE\n\n\31082\2020 Facebook \2020www.facebook.com\311

This service is called "Il tuo quartiere non \\u00e8 una discarica" ("Your neighborhood is not a dump") and is available by appointment. You can schedule a pickup by calling 060606 from Monday to Friday, 09:00-18:00, or on Saturday from 09:00-16:00. Alternatively, you can fill out an online form on the AMA website to book the collection.

The service allows up to two cubic meters of bulky waste, such as a three-seater couch, and is available up to 12 times per year per household, free of charge for those living at street level or from accessible garages. If you are on an upper level without easy street access, there may be a small fee involved.

This should be a good option for disposing of your couch in La Rustica. Let me know if you need more details or assistance with the booking process!"]}, "status": "finished_successfully", "end_turn": true
